All times for trips will be confirmed with an itinerary one week before the trip. All times listed are approximate. If you do not receive the itinerary in the mail, contact Mayfield Village Parks and Recreation at 461-5163.

THE BIG ROARING 20'S SPEAKEASY

Date: Sunday, November 15

Time: 12:00 p.m. – 7:30 p.m.

Cost: $86 per person includes performance and lunch

Details: You must know the “password” to get past Big Louie at the door and into Miss Dallas’ Speakeasy. Upon entry, you will receive your “purse” for the evening for use in the speakeasy games of blackjack, the big wheel and dice games. While mingling with dealers, dime dancers and mobsters, you will be entertained by a piano player (if he doesn’t get shot). If word gets out, there might be a “bust.” Miss Dallas and her dealers will turn the room into a legitimate supper-club with live entertainment while you enjoy your lunch. After lunch you may use your “gambling winnings” to bid on prizes at an auction and then the evening ends with a big show finale by all of the performers.

Registration Deadline: Friday, October 30

A CHRISTMAS STORY

Date: Friday, November 27

Time: 2:00 p.m. – 10:45 p.m.

Cost: $116 per person includes main floor seating for 8:00 p.m. performance, admission and dinner.

Details: Come join us as we tour the movie house of Ralphie from “A Christmas Story.” The museum features original props, costumes and memorabilia from the film and rare behind the scenes photos. Before the Phil Grecian’s stage adaptation of Jean Shepherd’s fond and funny tribute to the original and traditional, All American Christmas, we will have a great dinner at the Play House.

Registration Deadline: Friday, November 13.

Adaptive Recreation

Through the efforts of Mayfield Communities and Mayfield Schools, the Adaptive Recreation committee is offering opportunities for individuals with physical, sensory or developmental disabilities. For program cancellations due to weather, call the hotline at (440) 954-4114. For more information/flyers for adaptive recreation programs, please visit www.mayfieldvillage.com, www.leapinfo.org, and www.solonrec.org/Ribbon.html.

For all programs, an aid or assistant (which can be parent/caregiver) MUST BE PRESENT for one on one assistance for any participant who has difficulty following simple instruction, needs individual physical patterning or needs constant guidance.

The programs listed below are not only for persons with disabilities, they are for everyone. The success of these programs depends upon participants of all abilities. Teen and adult volunteers are encouraged to help out with the following programs.

In order to avoid cancelling programs, we need the cooperation of participants to sign up by deadlines. Mayfield Village will charge an additional $5 per participant if signing up after the deadline. Please note that Mayfield Village reserves the right to deny registrations after the deadline due to limited enrollment, planning, etc.

of Cleveland, 21600 Shaker Blvd. Shaker Heights, 44122
Min/Max: 3/10

Details: These classes are brought back by popular demand to the Mayfield Village Recreation Department. As former Artistic Directors of [Cleveland Ballet] Dancing Wheels, Sabatino Verlezza and Barbara Allegra Verlezza have been working in an integrative setting for many years. They developed an inclusive and programmatically accessible method of teaching dance to people of all abilities and levels. Since 1994, this particular approach has been used in movement classes and workshops for very diverse groups: ages (children through older adults), career focus (dance enthusiasts through professional dancers), ‘sit-down’ and ‘stand-up’ dancers (wheelchair users and non-wheelchair users) and those with varying sensory, physical, learning, and/or developmental disabilities. The class structure will include a 15 minute circle warm up, followed by simple patterns moving across the floor, improvisation, rehearsing a dance and a warm down. Students should wear appropriate comfortable clothing for a movement class. On the last day, parents will see an “informal showing” of what students have learned throughout the fall sessions. Registration Deadline: Friday, September 4, 25, October 16 and November 6.
